David specializes in searches in the legal industry. Clients and colleagues are regularly impressed by his talent for identifying candidates who are just the fit for particular positions. David's special ability comes from his business experience, listening skills, and creative approach to recruiting.

He conducts searches for partners and groups in law firms. David also has placed financial and other high level executives in law firms, as well as in private equity firms and in the housing industry.

Before joining The McCormick Group, David was Vice President for a retail chain with 400 stores. He founded and served as President for five companies that provided contract healthcare services in the Washington, DC, metropolitan area and in Baltimore, MD. David was also an aviator in the United States Army and achieved the rank of Captain.

He received a Bachelor of Science degree in International Affairs from the Georgetown University School of Foreign Service. He is a Past President of the Georgetown University Alumni Club of Metropolitan Washington. David restored and now lives in one of the oldest homes in the Mid-Atlantic region in Falls Church, VA.
