

Representative Placements

- Merger of several intellectual property boutiques with larger, full-service firms
- Merger of a leading New England boutique law firm into a national law firm
- Placement of a five-partner group that resulted in a major expansion of a Washington, DC, office of an out-of-town law firm
- General Counsel for a Fortune 200 manufacturing company
- General Counsel for a multi-office, international economic consulting firm
- First in-house lawyer for a leading worldwide philanthropic organization
- Senior Vice President, Government Relations and Communications for a major pharmaceutical company
- Representation of a number of high-level officials departing government, including two Cabinet Secretaries and several United States attorneys
- Placement of hundreds of partners in law firms around the country
- Placement of hundreds of associates in law firms around the country

Consulting assignments:

- Consulting advice to West Coast law firm considering new practice area
- Consulting advice to a large Southeastern law firm looking to expand its regulatory and government affairs practice areas
- Strategic consulting to various law firms considering merger options
- Development of business plans for multiple attorneys at a large national law firm
- Transition counseling to various partners, associates, and in-house counsel who are departing from their respective positions.